1978-1979 NORTH CAROLINA MINORITY BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Office of Minority Business Enterprise

James B. Hunt, Jr., Governor

D.M. Faircloth, Secretary

January 1978

Dear Directory Users:

The publication of the Minority Business Directory is a reality because of the unrelenting involvement and efforts of many persons, institutions and businesses in North Carolina. The North Carolina Office of Minority Business Enterprise (OMBE) is extremely grateful to these various sectors for their contributions and submission of businesses to include in this Directory.

Basically, this Directory will serve as an aid to private industries, governmental agencies and any components thereof, to assist in identifying minority suppliers of products and/or services.

Your assistance is needed to aid in identifying other minority businesses that are not listed in this Directory. Forms are provided in the latter section of the Directory for return mailing of unlisted businesses. It is vital to our program efforts to continuously update minority business listings. Therefore, your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Please use this Directory as a means to increase various opportunities, resources and profitability of minority businesses in North Carolina. Our basic goal is to improve the quality, quantity and stability of minority businesses. Your comments, ideas and suggestions are welcomed.

Sincerely yours,

Jerry M. Dodson, Director Office of Minority Business Enterprise

MINORITY PURCHASING COUNCILS

The creation of minority purchasing councils has resulted in increased contracts for minority businesses. Groups of purchasing agents representing large and small industries in the State meet regularly to discuss ways of identifying minority businesses in an effort to secure minority contracts for their companies. These monthly meetings afford minority business firms an opportunity to present their goods and services to the councils. The activities of purchasing councils have increased revenues for many minority firms.
